

Comments/solutions on the Blackboard discussion board please!

Four pairs of players take part in an afternoon of tennis doubles. During the course of this some people shake hands with each other. Nobody shakes hands with their own partner. At some point Ann asks each of the other seven players how many people they have shaken hands with. She gets seven different answers.

How many people did Ann's partner shake hands with?